WORD OF WELCOME

To you, the men and women of the class of 1943, the student council and the student body extend a hearty welcome to Indiana State Teachers College.

Just as an introduction to a person whom you are meeting for the first time is no doubt the approved manner of entering upon an acquaintanceship, so it is well that you and your college should be properly introduced. To establish a successful beginning should be one of your main objectives upon entering college. To help you find yourself and to inform you about the Lyras De Lombard and Gloan Foundation are among the purposes of this handbook. It seeks to be suggestive, to urge and encourage you. It hopes to inspire rather than instruct, since, inspired, you will tend to seek and find your way of living through experience and thinking. Let this handbook be your academic barometer to indicate the way and to assist you in making your college career a successful and happy one.

It is our sincere desire that you will attain the goals for which you are striving and simultaneously receive four of the most profitable years of your life on the campus of I. S. T. C.

GENERAL COLLEGE INFORMATION

All beginning students have been called "green freshmen." But why should this name be attached to the class of 1943? The reason for this name is that the typical freshman often asks such questions as, "Where is the science department?" or "Where do we sit in the dining room?" or "Where do we get our Indiana Penn?" These and many other questions are likely to arise during the first few weeks of the first year of college. By studying this handbook, which should be in your possession at all times, we hope that you will find the answers to most of the questions which deserve an answer.

A map of the campus has been provided and we hope that you will study it until you can answer your own questions about where this or that building is to be found.

At about ten o'clock on each Saturday morning the Indiana Penn is distributed. It is well circulated, in Leonard Hall, on all floors of the Arts Building and on the first floor of John Sutton Hall, so that everyone may get his or her copy.

In the early spring The Oak is given out in the gymnasium.

Originally plotted by Miss Dorothy Murdock, Replotted with new Notices are always placed in the daily bulletin as to the time and place of such distribution. An added suggestion—always read the daily bulletin.

The dining room which we all visit three times a day seems to be an important problem. During the first two weeks you may sit anywhere you want to; then, tables are assigned to each student. You will sit at these tables every day for lunch and dinner, except that on Friday evening and all day Saturday and Sunday you may select your own place. This holds good for the first semester and about two weeks after the opening of the second semester the same procedure is followed once again. Out of thoughtfulness for everyone it is considered a good policy to rotate around the table for different meals so that you can enlarge your acquaintanceship, the latter one of the fine contributions of college experience.

By studying each page of this handbook you should be able to meet most of the problems which may disturb you. If a condition should arise which the handbook does not explain, you will always find a willing individual to help you. Do not hesitate to ask; but learn to rely upon yourself.

THE STUDENT CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

The student co-operative association was organized in the fall of 1933, and is an organization that every student automatically joins when he pays his activity fee. The organization makes possible the College Bookstore, the Year Book (The Oak), the Indiana Penn, lectures and entertainments, varsity and intramural activities for men and women, and many other activities of equal value and rank.

The policy of this association is patterned by the fifteen members of the Student Council and by seven faculty members appointed by the President of the college. Its management is carried on by a treasurer-manager. As such the association is vitally concerned with promoting the welfare of the students in so far as this is involved in the activities of the college.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS PROGRAM

Since all students at Indiana are preparing for the Teaching Profession it necessarily follows that the aims of Intramurals as set forth at many colleges and universities which, in effect, are summed up in the phrase "Athletics for All," would not suffice. Briefly stated the aims of the Intramural Program for men at Indiana are:

1. To prepare students to organize and promote intramural or inter-class sports in the Public Schools.

2. To teach students, who are not particularly athletically inclined, the fundamentals and rules of sports which would fit into the intramural programs of the elementary and secondary schools.

3. To teach and train students in athletic activities in which they could indulge, in after-school life as a profitable use of leisure time.

4. An aid in developing personality and better feeling and understanding among the participants.

5. Athletics for present enjoyment and improvement of health.

The organization of Intramurals at Indiana consists of a Director, a Board of Control, and the Student Managers and Organizers, besides the participants themselves.

Merit in Intramurals is recognized at Indiana by a service award given at the end of the Junior year to those men who meet the following requirements:

Merit in Intramurals shall be recognized by (1) An Honor Award, (2) An Efficiency Award.

The HONOR AWARD shall be a red, wool jacket with the Intramural Honor Award emblem attached on the upper, left front of the jacket.

VARSITY ATHLETICS

Varsity athletics at Indiana are a definite part of the educational program. Athletics richly supplement and broaden modern education through development of virile men in manly activities. Our teaching profession is enriched by the calibre of men and that are fortified with the training and experience that varsity sports afford.

Football in the fall, forms the rallying point around which a real college spirit grows. School loyalty and enthusiasm gives the freshmen at the start of his career something in common with his upper classmen.

The public judges the tone of our school through our display of courage, skill and sportsmanship on the playing fields. We are proud of our record up to the present and anticipate further improvement with your help.

We are very anxious to have as many boys as possible participate in one or more of the following sports that go to make up our varsity program at the present time: Football, basketball, baseball, tennis, swimming and cross country.

It is a rule that no girl leave campus in the evening without signing out and giving her destination. This is for the purpose of locating the individual in case of an emergency. Girls must sign both on their hall and in the book in the telephone room.

In the case of leaving the campus for the week end, sign the week end register in both the office of the Dean of Women and on the hall.

First and second year students, for the convenience of parents, may have a form card filed with the Dean of Women permitting home visits at any time during the year. If such a card is not on file, special permission must be sent for each visit. Permissions for visits other than home necessitate a special permit from the parent to the Dean of Women.

Permissions

Women students have privilege of being off campus until 7:30 daily. First and second year students are granted one night a week, returning in time to be in their rooms at 10:00 P. M.

Visits to Indiana homes require special permissions.

The Dean of Women should be consulted and approved all special requests not included in the above items.

Guests

Pay phones can be used at any time and are found in Sutton Hall.

Infirmary

Boys report to the post-office where a girl assigned to that duty will accompany them to the Infirmary. Students are requested to consult the nurses before visiting a doctor or a dentist. Do not endanger the health of others by remaining in your room when ill.

The procedure for girls is to close all windows, turn on light, leave door open, take towel and coat, wear shoes instead of bedroom slippers, and leave by the correct exit as quickly as possible.

Any appliances for heat and fire are not permitted in the rooms. All extra connections must be installed by the electrician.

Daily Bulletin

The Daily Bulletin is read each morning in the first classes of the day. Each student should note carefully the items of the bulletin. Important announcements are frequently made through this medium. Those desiring to make announcements through the Daily Bulletin should place them in the hands of the president's secretary in the President's Office before four o'clock on the day preceding the date when they are to be made public. ### Lights

There are certain set rules to be followed in the dormitories in regard to light. During the week the dormitory students may have their light on until 11 p. m. ### Radios and Typewriters

Typewriters and radios may be used only between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. Radios should be played softly at all times in due consideration for others. Radio must be installed by the college electrician.

Clothing

What one wears is an individual matter. Simply made clothes in good condition are always in good taste. Avoid extremes, and consider appropriateness to the occasion. All students should change for dinner if at all possible, and always on Saturday evening.

Church Attendance

Older girls will be on hand to take freshmen to Church. See directory in back of book.

General Assemblies

General assemblies are held for lectures and other entertainments and on the call of the President. Each department has its own group meetings and the many student organizations arrange their own time for regular or special assemblies. All students are expected to attend assemblies.

Vesper Service

The Vesper Services offer an opportunity for the students to gather together for a period of non-sectarian religious worship.

The services are conducted each Sunday evening by different campus groups. Religious questions are discussed from the viewpoints of the different groups.

These services have become an integral part of the religious life of every student at Indiana Teachers College.

Co-operative Book Room

The Co-Operative Book Room is located on the main corridor of Sutton Hall. It is owned by the students and the profits derived from its operation help support the regular student activity program. The Book Room carries a complete list of all students needs such as books, supplies, pens, stationery, wastebaskets, desk lamps, etc. which may be purchased at a cost comparable with the prices in the "down town" stores.

Within recent years the Book Room has added candy, ice cream, cakes and cool drinks to its regular supplies. It is open from 7:45 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. daily except Saturday at which time it closes at 4:00 P. M.

Laundry

The laundry of all boarding students, to the extent of ten plain pieces per week, plus towels and napkins, is done in the college laundry. All pieces sent to the laundry must be plainly marked with owner's name. Name tapes sewed on articles or clothing constitute the best identification. A laundry bag should be owned and used by every student.

Library

The college library is located on the first floor of John Sutton Hall and is open to all students of the college. The collection includes books and magazines for leisure as well as professional and reference reading. Students are admitted to the stacks. Books and magazines borrowed for use in or out of the library are charged at the circulation desk. ### CLASS ATTENDANCE PRINCIPLES

1. When a student has had three consecutive absences or five non-consecutive absences from any one class, he will not be admitted to such class without a statement from the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men, as the case may be. Any subsequent absence likewise requires a similar statement.

2. When a student finds it absolutely necessary to miss a class, he is to clear this absence with the instructor and not with the Deans of Instruction.

3. Students are not permitted to cut classes immediately before or after vacation periods.

4. Upperclassmen on the Dean's Honor Roll have the privilege of absenting themselves from classes when they so desire.

DEAN'S HONOR ROLL

The fundamental purposes of the Dean's Honor List, which is composed of juniors and seniors, is to encourage high scholarship.

To be eligible the junior or senior must have received the following grades at the completion of one semester's work: "A" and "B" grades, with half or more than half of them "A".

Students on the list have the special privilege of attending classes at their discretion.

While one other teachers college has an honor list similar to ours, I. S. T. C. is the first teachers-training institution in this section of the state to adopt this system.

---

MARKING SYSTEM OF THE COLLEGE

"A" indicates an excellent grade of work.

"B" indicates a good grade of work.

"C" indicates a satisfactory grade of work.

"D" indicates a low grade of passing work.

"F" indicates a failure and no credit shall be given for the course so marked until it has been repeated in the regular way.

"I" is given to students who because of illness or other entirely satisfactory reasons have been unable to complete the required work, but have been doing in general a satisfactory type of work. This mark must be removed within one month after the opening of the next semester that the student is in school or become a failure. Upon completing the required amount of work the student may receive any mark to which the teacher feels he is entitled.

A system of quality points has been established as follows:

1. There are required for graduation or for permission to do student teaching a number of quality points equal to the number of semester hours credit required in the course being pursued.

2. A grade of "A" gives three quality points for each semester hour of credit so marked; a grade of "B" gives two quality points for each semester hour of credit so marked; a grade of "C" gives one quality point for each semester hour of credit so marked; and a grade of "D" gives no quality point.

PUBLICATIONS STUDENT HANDBOOK

The Handbook, which is edited and published by the Student Council, is the official informer of new students at Indiana. In it are found descriptions and comments concerning all the activities of the Campus. Read it through and orient yourself with your new environment.

THE 1939 OAK

The Oak is the college annual and contains a written and pictorial account of the activities of the year and features pictures of the Senior Class. The 1939 edition featured informality throughout and contained a pictorial description of the progress of the construction of our new buildings. Positions on the staff are obtained by appointment. The payment of the activity fee for two semesters entitles any student to a copy of the Oak. The book is distributed in the latter part of May.

THE INDIANA PENN

The Indiana Penn represents the daily activities of the college scene. In it can be found the weekly recording of past, present and future events on campus.

Published through the cooperative efforts of approximately 70 students selected on the basis of their former experience in journalism, executive ability, interest and willingness to devote untiring efforts toward making the paper successful, and an average or better than average scholastic standing. The Penn offers an opportunity to every student for participation in a worthwhile extracurricular activity.

Issued every Saturday morning the newspaper strives to focus attention on all the activities of the school—educational, athletic, and social; create and develop loyalty and school spirit; foster leadership, initiative and cooperation; reflect student and faculty opinion; and inform our parents, patrons and friends what the school stands for and what it accomplishes.

Appointment of the editor-in-chief is made by the Publications Board; the editor selects the remainder of the staff personnel with the aid and advice of the faculty adviser.

TEACHERS COLLEGE BULLETIN

The Teachers College Bulletin is published four times a year. It is issued twice as college catalogue and twice as an educational bulletin.

ORGANIZATIONS

To learn to live more adequately, more harmoniously with oneself and with others, to attain a well-rounded personality, to meet and solve the realities of living, in brief, to attain both personal and social adjustment, is the aim of the college organizations, including campus activities and the extra-curricular program at Indiana. Indiana emphasizes high scholarship; in addition, it realizes the many-sidedness of life and to this end prepares the incoming student. Professional techniques and procedures and the mastery of subject-matter are emphasized, but the social, recreational, religious, and aesthetic are integral parts of the total college pattern.

At Indiana the social pattern of living is developed through practically every activity or organization on the campus, including fraternities, sororities, and the departmental clubs. The urge-for-the-outdoors is stressed and recognized by way of riding, hiking, swimming, tennis, skiing and other sports. To this end the student co-operative association maintains the "College Lodge" which is within walking distance of the college campus. The religious aspect of life is indicated by the presence on the campus of such organizations as the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Newman Club, and the Lutheran Students Association. The aesthetic is not neglected, since from the very nature of the college campus to the murals in the college dining room one can find opportunities for expressions of the real joys of living.

Fundamentally, each organization has its own aims which it endeavors to develop in terms of real, vital outcomes. But throughout the work of the entire college, there will be found an academic trend. Indiana believes that a teacher-preparation institution offers something broader than mere teaching preparation, important as that is; it believes that it should give opportunity to the student to find himself in the great drama of living, to gain a more fruitful and functional philosophy of living, that each may become the master of himself and so of his work.

Life at Indiana is democratic. Students live together as one large social group and through the student-co-operative association and the student council find expression for their desires and needs. Each incoming student should study the following pages carefully before entering upon the activity program and consider what each organization has to offer to the end that he may effect the purposes for which he came to college.

(In the pages which follow there are presented the various activities of student-college life. For purposes of convenience to the class of 1943 each activity has been summarized as follows: name of organization; purpose; membership requirements; numbers involved; time of holding meetings; dues; sponsor.)

SONGS

The Beacon Light

In the ages long departed
Slowly grew the need of light;
Beacons now illume each highroad
Showing ways of Truth and Right.
Years ago our Indiana
Raised her tower to the sky
Here a glowing beacon lifted
Kindling hearts to purpose high.

CHORUS

Then it's hail to Indiana!
From the East to boundless West.
Never burned a beacon brighter,
Never was a way more blest
For the far off goal of learning;
We who seek and catch her beam,
Send it forth to darkened byways
In an ever-widening stream.
Our forefathers found the trail here
Blazed where red men softly trod,

Patiently subdued the forest,
Plowed and sowed the virgin sod;
And at last from labors lessened
Looked they upward for the light,
Flaming from the beacon tower
Where our College crowns the height.

Words—Margaret Hawkins.

Music—Carolyn Cessler.

REFRAIN

Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, strong and true,
Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, hear
our song to you.
There is beauty in your mountains,
There is peace upon your hills,
And where e're I roam.
My only home is Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania, we thrill with pride
To be your loyal descendants,
Pennsylvania, all hail to you,
The foundation of Independence.

School Song

Come and join our song of triumph,
 Bring to Indiana's fame
 Laurels of each new endeavor
 That will glorify her name.
 Forward then for Indiana!
 Make these hills and valleys ring,
 Lift her crimson and her silver gray
 Honor to your Alma Mater bring.
 Come, ye sons and daughters of her heart.
 Each to his own valiant part,
 Fight till you've won.
 Then, the strife of battle done,
 Sing, sing on for Indiana!

—Evelyn Jones.

Alma Mater

To our noble Alma Mater's name
 We, her children, sing a joyful lay,
 And to her a new allegiance pledge,
 That lives beyond a day.

REFRAIN

Sing, O, sing! Our Alma Mater's praise,
 Hail, O, hail! her color's gleaming hue!
 Give to her our homage and her love
 And to her Name be true.
 A prayer for her who sheltered us,
 A hope no child her name will stain,
 A cheer thrice giv'n with hearty voice,
 And now the sweet refrain.
 Of Loyalty are symbols twain,

Her colors, crimson and the gray,
"Dear Indiana Mother Fair,"
The burden of our lay.

Words and music by Mrs. Hamlin E. Cogswell.

Spirit Of Indiana

On! On! On! On to victory,
Everyone expects to see you win
today.
Fight to win! "Play the game square!"
Always for your Alma Mater do
and dare!
Now then go! Give then not a show.
You have skill and daring, that we know.
For not only will you score, but will add a few points more.
Just to show them how we do at Indiana.

Indiana, don't you hear our cheer?
That you'll honor us we have no fear.
See your pennant floating oe'r the field!
Unto foeman you will never yield.
You will hear us as we shout and sing,
Other teams will know their fate,
When they meet the "Red and Slate."
.It's the way we always do at Indiana.

Victory! Victory! Victory!
With your faces ever towards the foe.
Victory! Victory! Victory!
Pressing forward down the field
you go!
Victory! Victory! Victory!
Every man is finding every play,
For 'tis written on your shield,
"Unto foeman never yield."
We will ways do our best for Indiana.
